

BEST BATHROOM
WINNER: CHELSEA TOWNHOUSE
BATHROOM BY GUNTER & CO

Gunter & Co transformed this tired bathroom into a relaxing space. A bespoke curved shower enclosure allows a double vanity, a freestanding bath plus a loo and bidet to also slot within the clever design. While elegant panelling, classic stone and a soft brass finish all add to the refined look. 'I like the playful touches like the wallpaper and shell lighting,' says Sarah Spiteri.

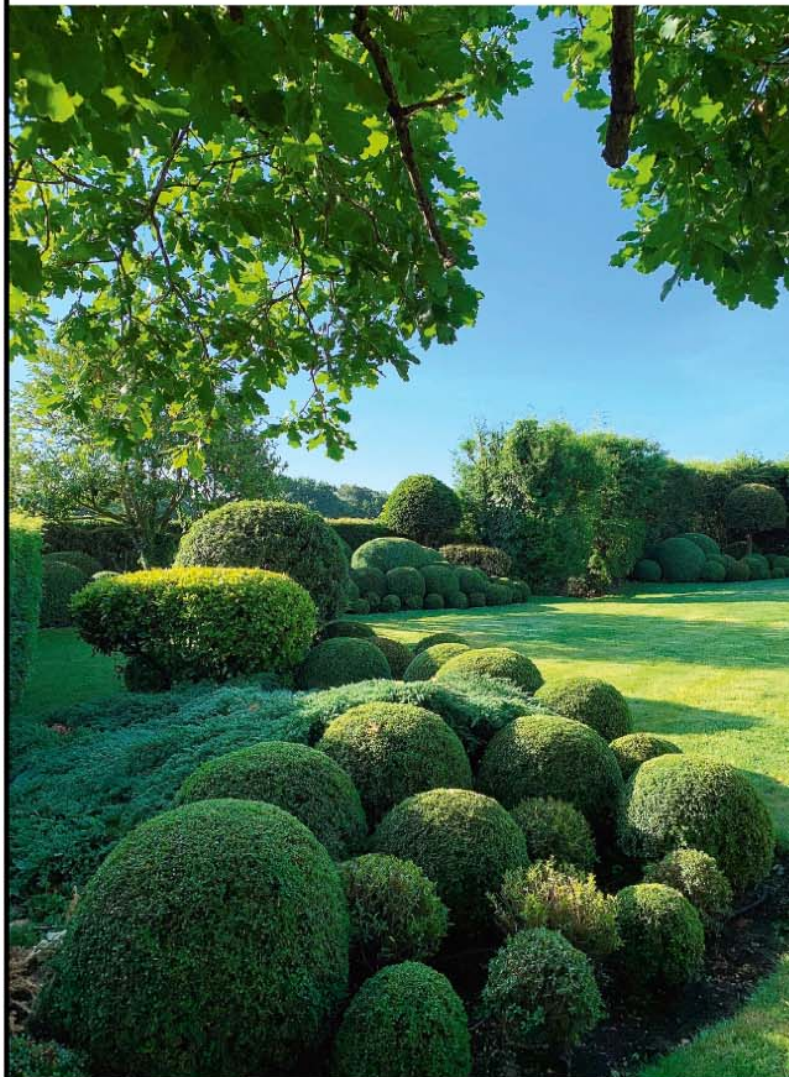

HIGHLY COMMENDED: Drummonds' Wetroom by Cuschieri Architects. 'I'm always drawn to a great use of colour,' says Kit Kemp.

BEST SMALL GARDEN
WINNER: LONDON SANCTUARY
GARDEN BY MARIAN BOSWALL
LANDSCAPE ARCHITECTS

A spiritual haven, this garden was designed as a place for children to play, and for adults to exercise and entertain friends. Mature trees and shrubs were all incorporated, and so were willow and topiary domes, a willow tree house and a hidden rose garden. 'An amazing garden to have created in the city,' says Sebastian Cox.

HIGHLY COMMENDED: Richmond Garden by Tom Massey. 'This garden is really smart, but also wonderfully inviting,' says Sarah Spiteri.

BEST LARGE GARDEN
WINNER: HOLLYWICK FARM BY PAOLO
MOSCHINO FOR NICHOLAS HASLAM

With an eye for detail and a passion for gardening, Paolo Moschino and Philip Vergeylen have planted evergreen perennials to ensure this garden is a lush retreat with incredible views from every window all year round. Located in the grounds of their Sussex farmstead, it has been divided into outdoor rooms to create different ambiances and uses. 'This garden takes you on a journey – I love the ways it's been divided up and the sculptural planting,' says Sarah Spiteri.

HIGHLY COMMENDED: Acomb High House by Matthew Wilson Gardens. 'An exciting design that takes on a sloping site,' says Tobias Vernon. 📧
